Black Swan: Handholding Clients Set-up Operations with a complete 360-degree Support

The demand for setting up business operations in Middle-Eastern countries is exponentially increasing as the recent financial stability, rapid lifestyle changes, the growth due to its unique geographic location, and most importantly the ease of doing business in the various Gulf countries are some of the major contributing factors for such a massive rise in demand. In the year 2020, UAE was awarded as one of the best countries for entrepreneurship and ease of doing business. Its capital Dubai has emerged as a huge attraction in business, but even the region has also proved one of the best international financial free zones in the world.

Observing the promising trends in the Middle-East market, Rupa Dha and her husband - entrepreneurial professional backed by immense experience working for various corporate founded Black Swan in 2016. The vision was to help businesses set up their operations in the region by providing opportunities to helping businesses and entrepreneurs on all aspects and give it the Middle East.

EE We facilitate everything to our clients so that they don't have to rely on different vendors. There is no trial and error involved here

Moving over to another country and setting up a business from scratch can often turn out to be a daunting task as there are numerous regulations and compliances that one is required to abide by. At Black Swan, a complete hand-holding right from the set-up of entrepreneur visas to setting up Bank accounts, office, or retail space, and all the way to legal, healthcare, and welfare consulting services are offered. "We facilitate everything to our clients so that they don't have to rely on different vendors. There is no trial and error involved here." - Entrepreneurial Rupa Dha, CEO, Black Swan. An Educator for the last 20 years, Rupa Dha is an IIT professional who has worked as an Assistant Head and Head of HR for prominent Management Institutes in India. She also worked as a Business Development Executive and as a Marketing Manager before entering the world of entrepreneurship. She will be featured in the next issue of the magazine. She has also been featured as one of the most Influential Women in the Arab nations by the Women of Arabia platform.

From a very hectic beginning with just a 30sqm first office back in 2016, the start has been able to transform Black Swan into an excellent business with a team of 40 dedicated experts. Over the years, the Black Swan group has showcased a successful track record of promoting and establishing companies building from a diverse background, from food startups to global e-commerce, and international food manufacturers to successfully launching insurance claims over here in UAE.

Going Towards a Promising Future

The entire Gulf, Middle-East countries enjoy a strategic location in the world map situated right in the crossroads between Europe and South-East Asia. The region has recently opened up for trade, and they are implementing more business centers here as well. From within the last few years, the Black Swan group has already set up its operations in Oman in the previous year. In addition, the Black Swan Group is also doing its regular in Bahrain, Kuwait and Saudi Arabia, with a well laid out road map for the Black expansion already on the cards.

CN Focus report

Living up to its vision to encourage and firm up the entrepreneurial quotient of the UAE by making the business set-up process easier and hassle-free, Black Swan is today an established brand and one to reckon with among corporate service providers in the UAE and Oman. Offering customised solutions to its clients, Black Swan is an enabler, helping its value partners launch their businesses faster in the Gulf.

The brand's goal is to provide confidence and support to start-ups and brands and help them visualise their growth in this market and manifest success. Comprised of a well-organised team of emotionally intelligent people, and who possess an inherent ability to think from the client's perspective, Black Swan caters to every basic need or information requested by its clients. The brand helps companies to not just scale up in Dubai but also expand operations to Oman, KSA, Bahrain and Qatar. Among these, Black Swan's Oman office is the most active, achieving great appreciation for its relationships, allowing the brand to enjoy 95 per cent client retention annually. This trust and confidence shown by its clients also helped Black Swan launch its first co-working space in Business Bay Dubai. With a vision statement that reads An Office that Cares, the Black Swan Business Centre clearly states the uniformity in its intentions and service levels.

Black Swan offers serviced offices, a co-working space and meeting-room solutions. With the increase in demand for informal workspaces, one can call this place a blend of classic and modern interiors and a highly energetic environment. The brand is soon expanding to other nations in the Gulf with the groundwork in process. The Black Swan mission is to grow together and help brands go global, and it is accomplishing this by providing its clients the right information and knowledge, as well as by empowering entrepreneurs to be the future they deserve.
